

- 1819 - slavery changed
- cotton market -> more slavery
- southerners pushed for Missouri to be admitted as slave state -> Missouri Compromise (Clay- Missouri-Maine - no slavery above southern boundary)
- movement established by early 1830's - David Rice (Southern minister) - "injustice and robbery"
  - another minister (Virginia Baptist David Barrow) - removed from assoc because he preached in favor of slaves' freedom *
- Politicians sided with the cause (Henry Clay - gradual emancipationist)
