

Ch 2

- US was late in joining a worldwide movement for abolition of slavery (so dependent on it)
- Parliament - End to slave trade in 1808, 1838 abolished slavery on all british territory
- 1838 AASS - 250,000 members
- Manumission Intelligencer in South, beginning in 1814
- Prudence Crandall ran a school for girls in Connecticut
 - Accepted a black girl as a pupil -> white parents withdrew their daughters
 - Miss Crandall turned the institution into a school for "young Ladies and little Misses of color"
 - Townspeople persuaded the state to pass a law making such a school illegal -> Crandall imprisoned
- 1829 76-page pamphlet by David Walker (free black) - Walker's Appeal circulated widely and inflamed white Southerners