

Sarah Moore Grimké

Schneir (35)

- Sister of prev. mentioned Angelina
- Angelina more eloquent and beautiful
- Religious public speaking tour
- Massachusetts clergy warned womankind of “permanent injury” to the female character if such unwomanly activities should continue

Grimké (36-48)

- Province of Woman, untrodden ground
- view women at period of creation
- biblical history
- reply to Pastoral Letter (prev. mentioned) and retorts with her own remarks upon the passages, counter the ever-opposing church
- education of women “miserably deficient” and earn a “scanty subsistence”
- Modest, bondage - ‘My husband does not approve of it’ when asked to join reformers

Margaret Fuller

Schneir (62)

- “high priestess” of the New England Transcendentalist group (Ralph Waldo Emerson)
- edited from 1840-1842 The Dial

Fuller (63-71) -- *FIX BIBLIO

- real sacrifice by the champions of the enslaved African (abolitionists)
  - many women are prominent in the cause; warmest appeal
- dialogue, current situation, F“I will never consent” -> M“Consent -- you?”
- historical progress of matter
- much opposition to women using the pen; publicly express fullness of thought and creation